1. A further indication of dissatisfaction with Augusto Duran, Secretary General of the Partido Socialista Democratico (as reported in SO 6141), is contained in a report that a meeting of anti-Duran elements within the PSD was held at the Postal Clerks Union in Bogota on 16 June 1947. The meeting was headed by Jorge Enrique Bayona and Pedro J. Abella, both members of the National Committee on Organization and Propaganda of the RVO. These men are said to be the principal leaders of the group trying to oust Duran.
2. Two other leaders in this anti-Duran movement have been identified as Marco Tulio Bolanos and Julian Bustamente.
